

Chinese Missionary At United Brethren Church

One of the well-known missionary organizations, The Voice of China and Asia, will be represented in this area on Sunday evening, August 15, 7:30, at the Torrance Evangelical United Brethren Church, located at Arlington and Marcelina.

The representatives will be Rev. and Mrs. Norman Turner, missionaries under appointment to sail for Hong Kong the last week of this month. Their three daughters, Rebecca, Doborah, and Leah will accompany them.

Norman Turner served in the Merchant Marines and the United States Army during World War II. While with the Army he saw action in the European Theater with the 7th Armored Division. He has received his B.A. degree from Pacific Bible College in Azusa, California and is a graduate of Narbonne High School with the summer class of 1943.

Harriet Turner, (nee Todd), also a Narbonne graduate of the same class, attended Westmont College in Santa Barbara where she majored in Christian Education.

Rev. Walter Stanton, Pastor of the Torrance Evangelical United Brethren Church extends a personal invitation to all friends of missions and of the

BIBLE SCHOOL

The Keystone Assembly of God, Moneta at 220th street, is from August 16 through the 20 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. on Monday through Friday, according to pastor Charlotte Shook.

Rev. Mae Shaw, superintendent of the bible school will conduct handcrafts, bible stories, and singing, and children of all ages and denominations are invited to attend.

PET SHOW SLATED FOR TOMORROW

Children under 16 years of age are grooming their pets for the annual pet show at Scott Park on Friday, August 13, at 10 o'clock. All pets are welcome except cows, horses, and elephants. Each pet will have to be leashed, in a cage, or otherwise controlled. Each entrant will receive a free gift and winners will receive ribbons and awards.

Turners, to this stirring service. Mr. Turner will be speaking on "Living Sacrifices," and Mrs. Turner will bring a testimony of their recently completed tour of services through 25 states. They will show an excellent film about their future home entitled "China's People."

COLONIC ENJOY A TRIAL $3 TREATMENT

Lawyers, doctors, clergymen, nurses, famous celebrities, even unemployed—visit my office from all parts of California, the United States and foreign countries and are treated for practically all of the ills of mankind. Why? Because people with asthma, heart trouble, blood pressure, skin disorders and many other ailments respond to these treatments—"as if by magic." Amazing testimonials. 6 a.m. to 9 p.m.—No appointment necessary. Dr. Brinkley, D.C., 355 S. Broadway, 2nd Fl., Los Angeles. TR. 7031

MARTINI'S ITALIAN GROCERY, located in Inglewood, has by popular demand opened a new store at 129 South Hawthorne Boulevard, Bob and Elmer Martini, for the last two years proprietors of an Inglewood store dealing exclusively in imported Italian foods at 706 Manchester, are bringing the same line of quality foods and service to the new Hawthorne store.

THE GENEROUS who is always just, and the just who is always generous, may, unannounced, approach the throne of heaven.—John Casper Lavater.

New Italian Grocery Opens In Hawthorne

Martini's Italian grocery has opened a new store at 129 South Hawthorne boulevard. Proprietors of the new store are Bob and Elmer Martini who also own a store in Inglewood.

Lines of merchandise will include vintage wines, olive oils, meats, beers, candies, macaronis, bread, pastries, seasonings and cookies.

Home made sausage which made the Inglewood store famous will also be available at the new Hawthorne store.

Cheeses available at the new establishment include, Ricotta, Mozzarella and aged Provolone with other Italian meal foods, Italian tomatoes, tomato paste, pizza dough and sauce.

R. Pyle Named Chairman Of Disaster Unit

Mr. Richard Pyle, manager of the local branch of the Pacific Telephone company, has been appointed chairman of the Red Cross Disaster committee for the Torrance area, Albert Isen, chapter chairman, announced today.

Isen also announced the appointment of Virginia Jones as chairman of the blood bank program; George Powell, First Aid and water safety; Mrs. Virginia Stoddard, canteen; and Mr. M. M. Schwab, chairman of the commerce and industry division of the fund raising committee. Mr. W. A. Felker will head the advance gifts committee.

Openings for volunteer workers on the canteen program, according to Mrs. Stoddard, are now being filled. Women interested in this phase of the Red Cross program have been asked to contact the committee chairman at Fairfax 8-6988.

The Red Cross office for the Torrance area is located at 2325 Torrance boulevard.
